

How Much Do You Know About Home Care?

Take the trivia challenge below and find out.

Home Care Trivia Challenge

Will Medicare pay for long-term in-home care?

- Yes
- No
- Sometimes

Hiring an independent caregiver privately is less expensive than using a home care agency.

- True
- False

Home care is not appropriate for someone with Alzheimer's disease or dementia.

- True
- False

ADL stands for...

- Assisted Daily Living
- Activities of Daily Living
- Ambulated Daily Living

All home care agencies must perform criminal background checks on caregivers before sending them to a client's home.

- True
- False

Your mother is recovering from hip surgery. Which type of care would be most appropriate?

- Home care
- Home health care
- Nursing home

The term "private duty" stands for...

- Supportive care services
- Tax free care
- Care for veterans

To find the answers, go online to <http://www.auntannshomecare.com/documents/pdfs/answers.pdf>.

Aunt Ann's Home Care • 198 Los Banos Avenue • Daly City, CA 94014
San Francisco 415.974.3530 • Peninsula 650.757.2000
eldercare@auntanns.com
www.auntannshomecare.com